

Proclamation

WHEREAS, our city's continuing efforts to address the critical issues of safety, energy efficiency and sustainability in the built environment that affects our citizens, both in everyday life and in times of natural disaster, give us confidence that our structures are safe and sound; and

WHEREAS, our confidence is achieved through the devotion of vigilant guardians – building safety and fire prevention officials, architects, engineers, builders, laborers and others in the construction industry – who work year round to ensure the safe construction of buildings; and

WHEREAS, since its inception the Building Officials and Inspectors Educational Association has been dedicated to the building enforcement profession with a goal to foster communication between all groups associated with the construction industry and work together to provide a safer and more sustainable built environment; and

WHEREAS, the BOIEA's mission is to provide for the safety, health and welfare of the citizens of Broward County through the education, development, maintenance and enforcement of building codes using unified strength and resources to attain thriving business, community and association environment; and

WHEREAS, BOIEA is committed to offering outstanding training and educational opportunities in order to facilitate the uniform interpretation and application of the Florida codes across the County. The City commends BOIEA for its commitment to helping Florida's citizens to be protected by building and fire codes.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, PEGGY NOLAND, Mayor of the City of Deerfield Beach, Florida, in recognition thereof, do hereby proclaim the month of May 2010 as:

“Florida Building Safety Month”

in the City of Deerfield Beach, and encourages all citizens to take action to learn about building codes and what homeowners can do to live in safe, sound and sustainable structures.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Deerfield Beach to be affixed at Deerfield Beach, Florida, this 4th day of May, 2010, A.D.

Peggy Noland, Mayor

ATTEST:

Ada Graham-Johnson, MMC, City Clerk
