PROCLAMATION

- Whereas,* The dedicated members of the Building Code Community including, the Code Enforcement Department, the Fire Prevention Bureau, architects, engineers, and others in the construction industry, ensure the implementation of the codes that safeguard Americans in the buildings where we live, work, play and learn; and
- Whereas,* Through our continuing attention to building safer for everyday life and in times of disaster, we enjoy the comfort and peace of mind of structures that are safe and sound; and
- Whereas,* "Building Safety Month: Commemorating a 30-year Legacy of Leadership," the theme for Building Safety Month 2010, encourages all Americans to raise awareness of the importance of building safety; green and sustainable building; pool, spa and hot tub safety; and new technologies in the construction industry. Building Safety Month 2010, encourages appropriate steps everyone can take to ensure that the places where we live, learn, work, worship and play are safe and sustainable, and recognizes that countless lives have been saved due to the implementation of safety codes by local and state agencies; and
- Whereas,* This year, as we observe Building Safety Month, I ask the Citizens of Keene and the Monadnock region to consider projects that improve building safety at home and in the community, and to recognize the local building safety and fire prevention officials for the important role they play in public safety.
- Now, therefore,* be it resolved that I, Philip Dale Pregent, Mayor of the City of Keene, do here by proclaim May, 2010, as Building Safety Month in Keene, New Hampshire, and ask all citizens of the Greater Keene area join me in saluting all Building Safety and Fire Prevention officials for the important role they play in Public Safety and for their outstanding contributions.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and the official seal of the City of Keene this 6th day of May 2010.
